Leasehold information for apartments at Rivermark

The length of term of the lease and the initial annual ground rent is outlined below and will be explained to you by our sales executive on site. It is also very important that your solicitor should advise you about the detailed terms of the lease, including the review provisions which are explained in brief below.

Leasehold Information

- Apartments at this development are being sold on a leasehold basis.
- The length of term of the lease for this apartment is 999 years commencing in January 2026 and the initial ground rent is peppercorn.

Ownership of the Freehold for apartment blocks

In common with most developers, it is not Taylor Wimpey's policy to retain the ownership of the freehold title to your property indefinitely. Therefore, it is likely that an agreement has been or will be entered into by Taylor Wimpey with a third party for the sale of the freehold reversion of the leasehold apartments and associated communal areas on the Development once the last Property has been sold.

IMPORTANT: You are strongly advised that you should take independent legal advice in relation to the purchase of the property, including all matters covered by this document
