"The Customer Sales team were excellent. I had no intention of buying from any developer due to their poor reputation but the Taylor Wimpey staff were professional, welcoming, happy answering all my questions and this reassured me. Nothing was too much trouble for example, the first time I the show homes and all this combined won the sale. During the buying process they appreciated my difficulty of moving hundreds of miles and I was in a chain. Throughout they kept me informed of updates, any issues that arose and answered my emails promptly and effectively.

manner. The Assistant Site Manager called during my Home Demo to introduce himself and ask if there was anything I had noticed, there was and these were corrected within a few days. Everybody on site has been polite, courteous and have gone the extra mile."

"The Team from Mountbatten Mews has been extremely warm towards us and made the process really easy and calmed our nerves as first time buyers."
